

What constitutes a governmental unit?

We interpret a “governmental Unit” as no less than the level at which an indirect cost rate would be developed. therefore, if the county has divisional rates, then it would be the division, If It has departmental rates, the governmental unit would be the departments. It would be the entire general fund if included in the countywide plan. However the county proceeds, it must be consistently applied. A “workgroup” would not be acceptable.